Elegance, privacy, and spaciousness in an exclusive semi-detached residence in Arturo Soria In a quiet, prime residential enclave of Arturo Soria, close to Parque Conde de Orgaz, lies this magnificent semi-detached home of approximately 500 m² built, fully renovated with top-tier finishes and designed to provide the ultimate in comfort, privacy, and quality of life. From the very first moment, the home stands out for its extraordinary brightness—courtesy of its expansive windows and southern exposure—as well as its thoughtful layout distributed across four floors served by an elevator. The interior spaces are defined by generous proportions and sophistication, featuring a refined selection of materials and high-end equipment. The home incorporates an advanced home automation (domotics) system, a Sonos sound system, air conditioning, and individual underfloor heating. The main floor hosts a superb daytime living area centered on a spacious living-dining room with floor-to-ceiling windows and direct walkout access to the private garden and swimming pool, creating seamless continuity between indoors and out. The separate, fully equipped kitchen features NEFF appliances, offering a functional and meticulously designed culinary space. A guest powder room completes this level. The first floor is dedicated to the family quarters and offers three large bedrooms, all with generous wardrobes and...
