On the iconic Casp street, right in the heart of Barcelona's Dreta de l'Eixample, you will find this elegant renovated apartment of 123 sq m built, located in a perfectly preserved royal building. Situated on a real fifth floor, it combines the character of classical architecture with a contemporary renovation that has respected and restored its original elements. The property also features a large balcony/terrace that provides light and an excellent connection with the outdoors. The layout has been designed to offer spaciousness and comfort. It features three bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of them en-suite, providing privacy for both family and guests. The master suite includes a walk-in closet area. The third exterior double bedroom has access to the balcony-terrace that overlooks an open courtyard block with well-maintained buildings, enjoying plenty of tranquility and light throughout the entire day. The day area integrates a bright living room with a fully equipped semi-open kitchen of over 30 sq m, creating a functional and cozy space with direct access to the balcony-terrace, ideal for enjoying Barcelona's climate all year round. The entire home has windows throughout all rooms (including...
