In the heart of Mira-Sol, near the train station, bus stop, schools, markets and a complete shopping center, we find this beautiful design house, just finished completely and with a very careful design.

We access the house both on the ground floor and on the first floor, after climbing a flirtatious staircase. The main entrance is on the first floor, after crossing the hall, we go to the living room with fireplace and exits to a carefully designed garden, with a pool that invites you to relax; all the garden floor, with a pavement specially designed for outdoor areas that border pools, which avoids slipping and overheating. Returning to the house, also on this floor, a very equipped designer kitchen, with an island where you want to cook and a toilet. On the second floor, the main room and two single rooms, all with fitted wardrobes and two of them with glazed exit to a terrace in which the moments of enjoyment will inevitably lengthen. All these rooms share a full design bathroom. The whole house is exterior, all instances receive a light that brightens every corner. On the ground floor, a super suite, with its own living room and glazed windows through which you can access the outside. Also on this floor another room, currently destined for...
