This 89 m?? home is located on Via Laietana, in the heart of Ciutat Vella, in the Sant Pere, Santa Caterina i la Ribera neighbourhood.

It is a renovated flat that combines a contemporary look with an especially attractive location for those who want to enjoy Barcelona from its historic centre. An interesting option both for those looking for a city residence and for those who want a second home in the city. The day area is arranged as an open space connecting the living room, dining room and kitchen, creating a comfortable, well-integrated setting. The kitchen, with a central island and contemporary units, features high-end appliances. The home has one bedroom and two bathrooms, as well as parquet floors, integrated lighting and careful finishes that bring continuity and warmth to the interiors. Living at this address means having Barcelona at your fingertips: historic streets, shops, restaurants, cultural venues and a wide range of leisure options. Its location makes it easy to get around the centre and enjoy the city's most authentic character, without giving up everyday services. A property designed for those who value contemporary design, well-planned spaces and the...
