Apartment for sale in Bellsoleig, one of the quietest and most sought-after corners of Sant Just Desvern, priced at €365,000.

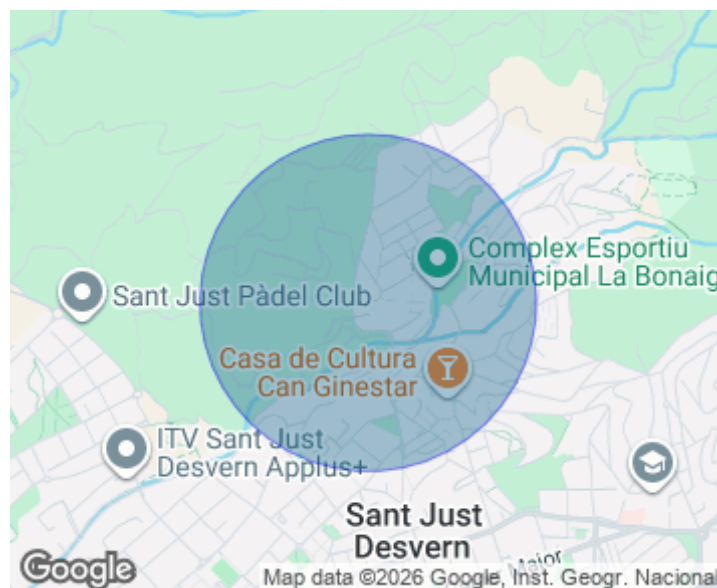

Set between the La Bonaigua sports centre and the Club Esportiu Can Melic, this location combines the calm of Collserola Park with a direct connection to the town centre. A fully exterior-facing apartment, bright and airy, with excellent orientation and open views that make a real difference day to day. With 83m² built and 67m² usable, the home is laid out around a welcoming entrance hall leading into a bright living-dining room with direct access to the terrace, where the views are simply outstanding. The independent, functional office-style kitchen includes a utility area for the washing machine. Three bedrooms — a double master, a second double room and a single third room — plus one full bathroom make for a comfortable, well-balanced layout, ideal for family life as well as remote work. The neighbourhood offers that rare balance of nature, tranquility and proximity to every amenity, without compromising on the quality of life found in a well-established residential area. The property also includes two parking spaces within the same building, a particularly valuable feature in an area where...
