aProperties presents this elegant, light-filled residence in the exclusive Almagro neighborhood, located within the Chamberí district.

Situated on the third floor of a classic early 20th-century building on Calle Españoleto, this 234 m² (cadastral area) property blends the charm of traditional Madrid architecture with a contemporary interior design, high-quality materials, and excellent amenities. Its southern orientation—complemented by three large windows facing Calle Españoleto, one of which features a balcony—ensures an abundance of natural light and a privileged connection to the surrounding area. The living area is designed for comfort and seamless flow, featuring a spacious living and dining room integrated with a designer kitchen. Natural light, a carefully curated selection of materials, refined finishes, and architectural details lend a distinct character to every room, creating an atmosphere that is both sophisticated and welcoming. The private quarters comprise three bedrooms, each with an en-suite bathroom, in addition to a guest powder room. The residence also includes a separate study—an ideal space for working from home—as well as a dedicated laundry area to facilitate...
