Located in the heart of one of the neighborhoods with the most personality and vitality in Madrid, this 99 m² cadastral apartment offers a perfect combination of tranquility and urban life.

Located a few steps from the emblematic squares of Chueca, Pedro Zerolo and del Rey, this property is ideal for both living and investment, in an area with very high residential and tourist demand. The property is located in a well-preserved building from 1900 and has a functional and comfortable distribution. It has two bedrooms with fitted closets, two bathrooms and a large living room that stands out for its brightness and spaciousness. Despite being interior, natural light is present thanks to an intelligent distribution and several windows that allow the entry of light throughout the day. The interior character of the apartment, far from detracting from its value, represents a key advantage for those who wish to live in the heart of the city center without sacrificing tranquility: a rare and much sought-after balance. The living room, spacious and cozy, is perfect for enjoying meetings, relaxing or even working from home. Its open design and the generous dimensions of the space make it the true heart of the home. Built-in closets offer a practical...
