Signature house in Sarrià In one of Barcelona's most distinguished and residential areas, stands this exclusive 380 m² detached house, designed and built by the renowned architect Enric Espinet, a key figure in contemporary Catalan architecture. The residence, distributed over several floors, combines modern lines, natural light, and impeccable functionality. Its five spacious bedrooms and four bathrooms offer the perfect balance between communal living areas and private spaces, ideal for a high-level family or professional lifestyle. Every detail reflects Espinet's characteristic architectural sensitivity: a fluid relationship between interior and exterior, carefully selected noble materials, and a layout that prioritizes comfort, brightness, and harmony with the surroundings.

The main living room, large and open-plan, connects with the sunny terraces and the private garden, creating a visual continuity that enhances the feeling of space and serenity. The kitchen, modern and fully equipped, serves as the functional heart of the home; a space designed both for everyday use and for the most demanding culinary experiences. Located on a quiet street with excellent access to international schools, natural parks, and exclusive services, this house offers a unique lifestyle where design, comfort, and location are masterfully combined. The signature of Enric Espinet grants...
