This spacious and elegant residence has been completely renovated to offer a functional, bright and sophisticated space, where every detail has been carefully considered.

The day area stands out for a generous living room divided into several environments, bathed in abundant natural light thanks to its large east-facing windows. The modern, fully equipped kitchen includes a practical pantry and utility area. In the night area, we find a magnificent main suite with a walk-in closet and private bathroom, two bedrooms that share a complete bathroom, a second independent suite and an office or multipurpose room ideal for remote work or a relaxation area. The property preserves the charm of the classic building with high ceilings and original architectural elements, combined with contemporary finishes such as new carpentry, designer doors, custom lighting and integrated climate control systems. Located in one of the most sought-after areas of Barcelona, the property enjoys excellent public transport connections and proximity to renowned shops, services and restaurants, making it an ideal choice for those seeking comfort and exclusivity in the heart of the city.
