If you are looking for an apartment with character in Gràcia, this one is hard to ignore.

With 83 sq m of usable space and a balcony with direct views of the Mercat de l'Abaceria Central, the apartment is located right in the epicenter of the neighborhood, one of the most requested and lively areas in Barcelona. The building, constructed in 1930, has all the solidity of period architecture: ITE (building technical inspection) in order and a built-in elevator. The renovation is recent and very meticulous: the Catalan vaulted ceilings, the original hydraulic tile floors, and the period woodwork have been restored and integrated with a fully equipped open-plan kitchen —featuring an induction hob, oven, microwave, dishwasher, and refrigerator— that opens up to the living-dining room. The two double bedrooms have custom-made wardrobes, there is a full bathroom and a second guest restroom, a space for a washer and dryer, and an open office for anyone needing to work from home. It is completely ready to move into from day one. Living here means having Gràcia's market, terraces, bookstores, and street markets literally just around the corner. It is a choice designed for those who want the best of Barcelona's urban life without giving...
