aProperties presents a magnificent town house located in the charming town of Gaibiel, in the province of Castellón.

This property is located in the spectacular Sierra de Espadán, just 45 minutes from Valencia on the Mudéjar highway, offering a quiet and natural environment. General characteristics: The house is made up of four floors, each with an area of 70 square meters. The building has been completely rebuilt, maintaining the original stone walls of the place. This stone not only provides excellent thermal insulation, but also adds a rustic and vintage touch to the design of the house. However, with the right combination of materials, it is possible to create a modern or Nordic style. Distribution: Ground Floor: Includes a large garage with capacity for a large car and a motorcycle, as well as a bathroom and an auxiliary sink. The garage door is automatic. On the right side of this floor there is a large entrance and a storage room. The entire floor has white marble flooring, which extends along all the stairs to the fourth floor. This floor has access from two streets, which makes entry and exit easy, making it ideal for rent. First Floor: This floor is...
