Located in the heart of Somosaguas, one of the most prestigious and private gated communities in Madrid, this extraordinary architect-designed villa stands out for the harmony of its spaces, the quality of its design, and a layout conceived for enjoying everyday life with maximum comfort. Every corner reflects a thoughtful architectural vision, where light, proportions, and the connection between living spaces take center stage. The spectacular living room, featuring 5.9-meter-high ceilings, creates a sense of spaciousness and sophistication that is truly hard to find. The main floor has been designed so that daily life unfolds comfortably on a single level. An elegant double-height entrance hall, presided over by an imposing sculptural staircase, leads to the main rooms of the residence. The grand living-dining room becomes the true heart of the home, complemented by a cozy TV room and a spacious kitchen with a casual dining area, designed for family enjoyment. On this same floor lies the magnificent primary suite—a true private retreat with a walk-in closet and two full bathrooms—in addition to a staff bedroom with a bathroom, a laundry room, and a guest powder room (aseo de cortesía). On the upper floor, a refined library overlooking the living room adds character and personality to the overall design, creating an attractive interplay of volumes and perspectives.
