Renovated flat with a 141 m² private patio in the centre of Terrassa This renovated 117 m² (built) flat in the very centre of Terrassa is one of those homes people look for when they want to live in the city's most prestigious and sought-after area, with shops and services within walking distance and the FGC station very close by, offering excellent connections to Barcelona. The full renovation is recent and the finishes are high-end, so practically everything is brand new. The living-dining room receives plenty of natural light thanks to its exterior aspect, and the designer fireplace gives it character. The kitchen, with a dining area, has plenty of storage, an induction hob and integrated top-brand appliances. The four bedrooms are clearly laid out: the main suite has a designer private bathroom and access to the balcony, and the other three bedrooms have made-to-measure built-in wardrobes, direct access to the terrace and a shared full bathroom. Both bathrooms have showers. Individual natural gas heating and air conditioning complete the comfort. What sets it apart most is its private patio of around 141 m², something very rare in a town centre. There is room for a summer dining area, a chill-out zone, an outdoor gym or even a swimming pool, and it has a separate laundry area and a motorised awning. It is a flat designed for families who want outdoor space without giving up living in the...
