Beautiful exterior house in a representative street of the neighborhood of Salamanca, area of Lista with 111 m2 built cadastral, magnificently distributed in comfortable spaces, well resolved and adapted to current needs. It has a large living room with integrated kitchen, designed as an open space, elegant and functional, very bright having three large windows to the street. The rest area is composed of two large double bedrooms (one of them exterior), two full bathrooms (one of them en suite) and separate laundry room. Furniture and decoration are included in the price, allowing immediate entry without need of adaptation. The reform has been executed with particular attention to detail, prioritizing quality materials, durable solutions and consistent distribution. The custom built-in closets, the intelligent use of every square meter and the visual harmony between rooms reflect a project worked with discernment and sensitivity. The farm has a goalkeeping service. Includes This is a house designed for those looking for something more than a beautiful renovation: light, good distribution, privileged location and a home ready to move in from the first day.
