In Alella, one of the most highly regarded spots in the Maresme, we find a detached house of the kind that offers much more than first meets the eye.

Set on a 426 m² plot, this single-family home has 474 m² built and stands out for its independence, spaciousness and the garden that surrounds it, creating different areas to enjoy the outdoors in privacy. A property with personality and multiple possibilities, designed for those looking for space and the chance to adapt every corner to their own way of living. Its layout over different levels creates distinct areas, and it also has a shaft already in place for installing a lift, a detail that opens the door to improving its accessibility. The main floor is where much of daily life happens: a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, a full bathroom, a large kitchen with dining area and separate utility area, and a large living-dining room with fireplace, arranged in two areas and connected to the outdoors. From here, the terrace and garden become a natural extension of the home. The upper floor has four bedrooms, including a main suite of approximately 20 m² with a large bathroom with bathtub and shower, a triple bedroom with balcony and two further...
