Discover the charm of authentic Mallorcan architecture in this spectacular century-old house, fully renovated and ready to move into.

A truly unique property that preserves the essence of the island's traditional homes while combining more than a century of history with the comfort and convenience of contemporary living. Offering approximately 150 m<sup>2</sup> of built area, the house has been carefully restored, preserving original features such as solid wooden doors, antique glass windows and numerous architectural details that give the property its unique character and timeless charm. The property offers five spacious bedrooms and three full bathrooms with walk-in showers, providing an ideal layout for families or for those looking for generous living spaces, guest accommodation or home office areas. The bright living room, centred around a cosy pellet fireplace, creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout the year, while the modern air conditioning system with heating and cooling ensures maximum comfort in every room. Outside, the house sits on a 580 m<sup>2</sup> plot, featuring approximately 260 m<sup>2</sup> of terraces, perfect for outdoor dining, relaxing in complete privacy or enjoying the Mediterranean climate all year round. The property also...
