Investment opportunity in l'Eixample Dreta, in a corner building from 1910, we find six apartments of approximately 100m2 each, completely to reform.

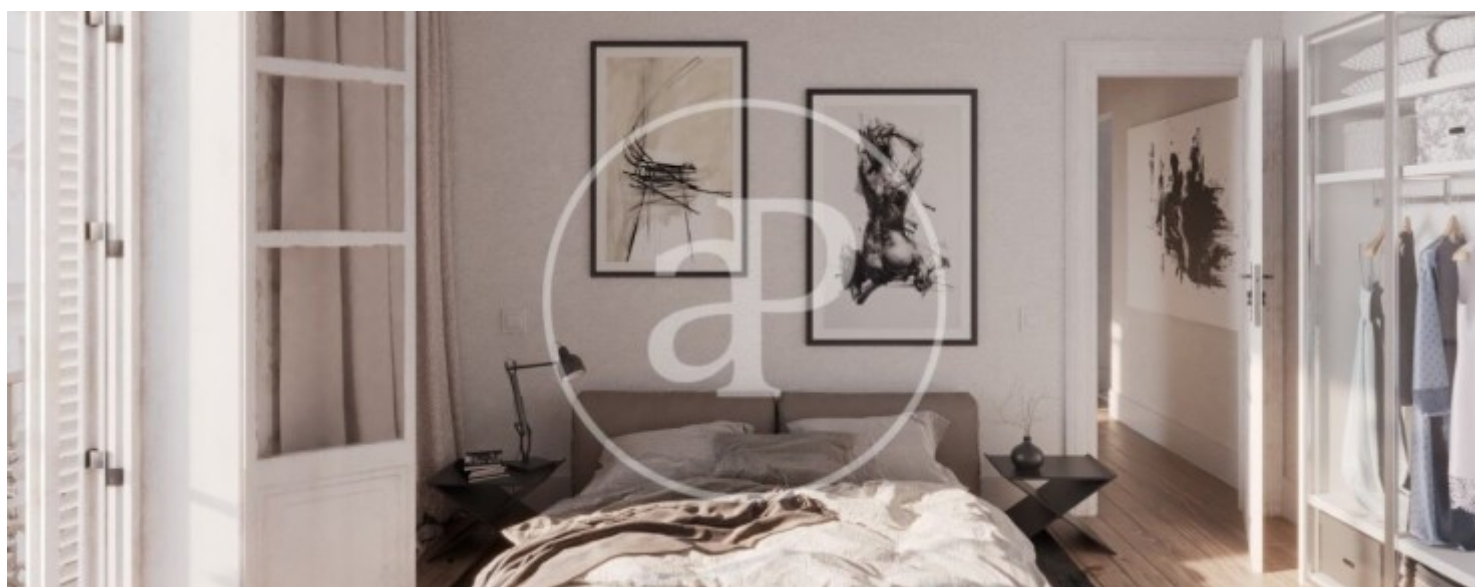

Currently they consist of kitchen, living-dining room, three bedrooms and a bathroom, but thanks to its distribution and the fact that most of the walls can be removed, it offers a great opportunity to reform them to your own taste and transform them into dream apartments in the center of Barcelona. They stand out for their high ceilings, hydraulic mosaic floors and exterior balconies overlooking the street. Thanks to the fact that most of the rooms are exterior, the apartments receive a lot of light. There are plans to renovate the staircase and install an elevator. The apartments are not for sale individually, at least two of each floor, only for investors.
