Exclusive apartment for rent in Barcelona, located in a classic Eixample building that preserves the full essence of Barcelona's modernist architecture.

A unique property that combines original architectural features with a carefully executed contemporary renovation, designed to offer comfort, elegance and everyday functionality. Access to the apartment immediately impresses with a spectacular modernist entrance hall, featuring an original dome and restored mouldings that define the home's distinctive character from the very first moment. This space, rich in history and personality, acts as the central axis of the layout and provides an unusual sense of spaciousness and refinement. The living area is defined by generous, light-filled spaces, with a fluid layout that enhances the entry of natural light. Noble materials, neutral tones and the balance between classic elements and contemporary design create a sophisticated, warm and timeless atmosphere. The bedrooms offer comfort and tranquillity, thoughtfully designed both for rest and for working from home. Each room maintains a dialogue between original features and modern living, respecting the character of the building while adapting to today's lifestyle needs. Located in one of...
