In an emblematic Finca Regia from 1900 in one of the most sought-after areas, we present this special master to renovate that preserves original elements of the period, hydraulic floors, coffered ceilings, large windows and a wonderful corner dome-shaped area that enjoys a very special luminosity. The current layout is notable for its large communal area with large windows overlooking the street and high ceilings. Accessing through a wide corridor with large built-in wardrobes and attics, we access the night area where we find the master suite with access to a small patio.
