An exceptional property in the heart of Eixample Dreta, at the prestigious intersection of Carrer del Bruc and Avinguda Diagonal.

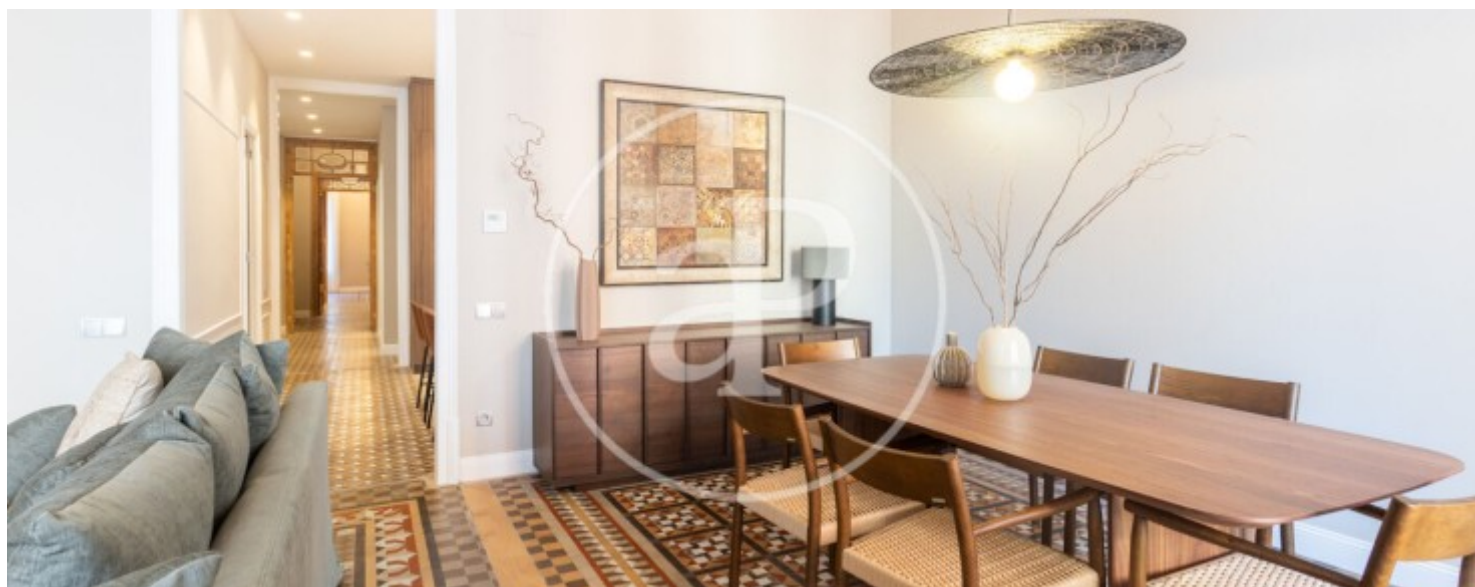

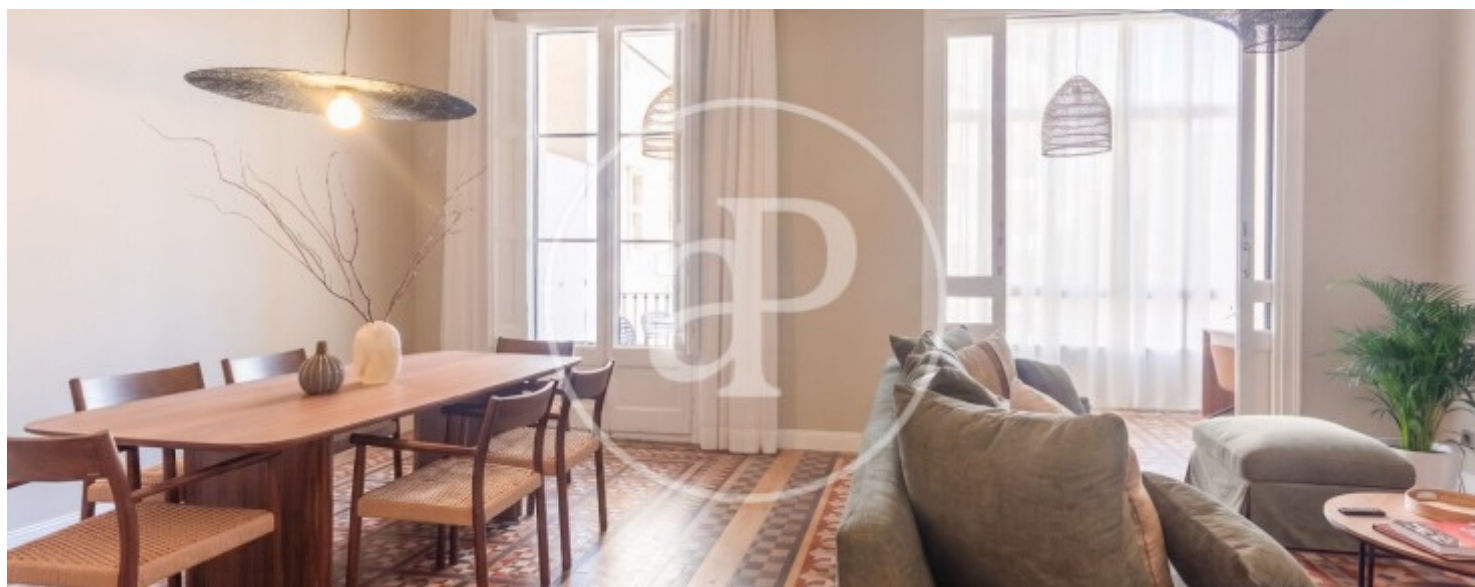

Located in an elegant early-20th-century period building, this magnificent 166 m² residence has been completely refurbished through a sophisticated interior design project that combines Barcelona's original architectural character with the amenities and comfort of a high-end contemporary home. A unique, bright property with extraordinary character, featuring high ceilings, restored ornamental mouldings, original hydraulic tiles, and elegant period woodwork, all carefully integrated with a contemporary layout and high-quality materials. The living area offers a spectacular open-plan space where the living room, dining area, and kitchen flow together seamlessly. Warm-toned indirect LED lighting creates a sophisticated and welcoming atmosphere, particularly as evening falls. The generously proportioned living-dining room enjoys abundant natural light and retains valuable original features, including high ceilings with restored ornamental mouldings and beautiful handcrafted hydraulic tile flooring. Its neutral-toned design creates an elegant and harmonious setting, combining functionality with refined aesthetics. A...
