In the middle of the Eixample Dreta (Right Eixample), in one of the most emblematic and stately areas of Barcelona, we find this spectacular furnished apartment of 220 m<sup>2</sup>, a home that combines spaciousness, elegance, and the charm of classic architecture with the comforts of a modern residence. Designed with great attention to detail, the property offers a functional layout with a clear separation between the day area and the night area, providing comfort and privacy in every room. The day area stands out for its large main living room, bright and cozy, with different seating and reading areas that invite relaxation. Following this, an elegant living-dining room connects to a modern kitchen, fully equipped with high-end appliances, next to a separate laundry area that adds convenience to the whole. The night area has three bedrooms, all with private bathrooms. The main suite stands out for its spaciousness and its en-suite bathroom, which offers an intimate and comfortable environment. The second bedroom, a double and also with its own bathroom, maintains the same level of comfort. The third bedroom, currently used as a dressing room, also has a private bathroom, adding versatility to the home. The apartment features ducted air conditioning and heating, as well as double-glazed windows, ensuring maximum thermal and acoustic insulation. Natural light floods the rooms during the day,...
