This newly renovated apartment is located in the Eixample Dreta neighborhood, on Calle Bailén—one of central Barcelona's most desirable areas.

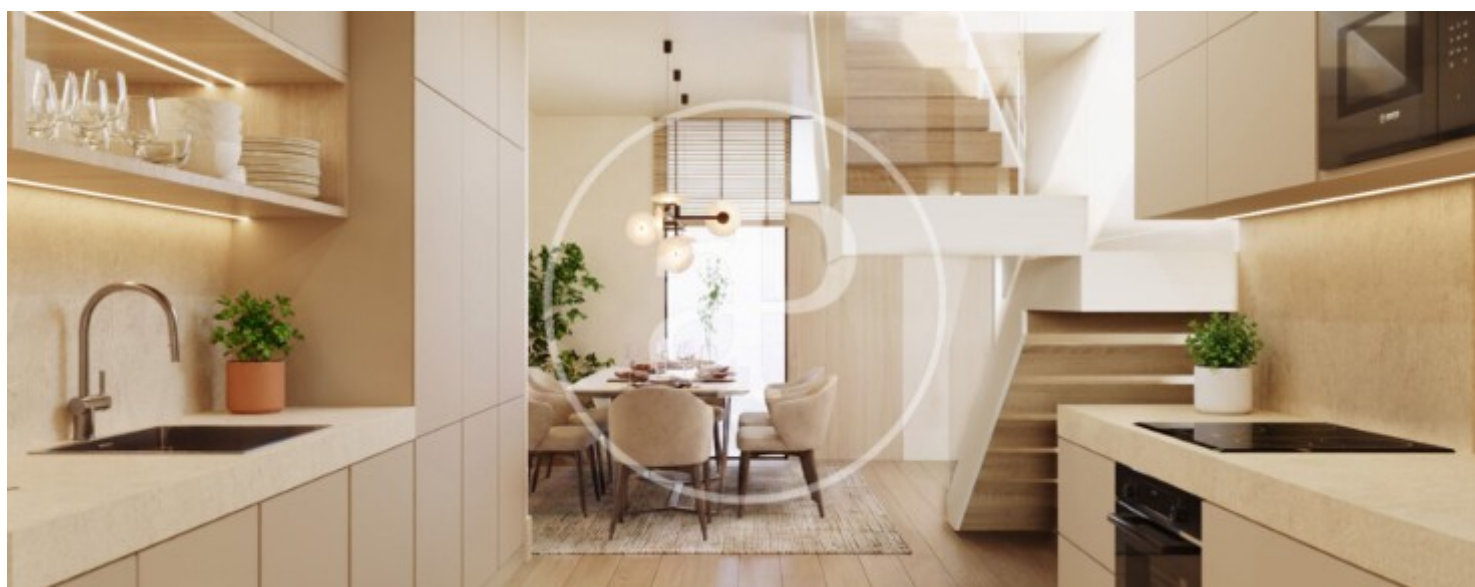

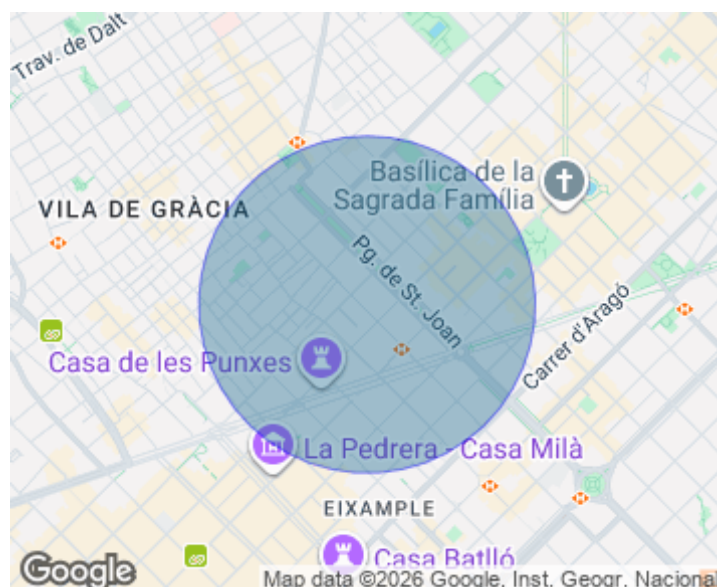

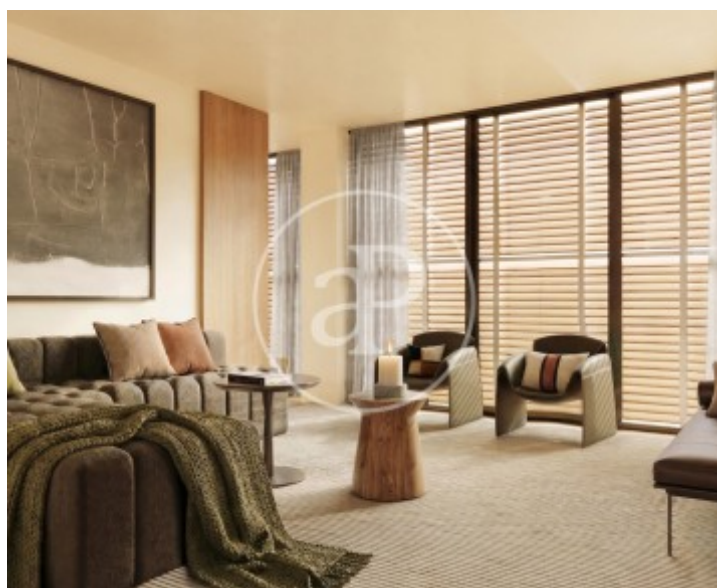

Measuring 95 sq m built, it is set in a perfectly maintained building and offers an attractive combination of contemporary design, spaciousness, and prime location. Its street-facing orientation and expansive windows allow for an abundant flow of natural light. The layout features two bedrooms and three bathrooms, alongside an open-plan kitchen integrated into the living-dining room to create a fluid, welcoming environment. Key highlights include natural wood finishes, custom-built furniture, and high-end integrated appliances. The master suite is designed as a peaceful sanctuary, while the second bedroom is situated on the upper level, accessed via a designer staircase. This property is an exceptional choice for anyone looking for a brand-new, functional apartment with distinct character in the heart of Barcelona. Living here means having a wide selection of shops, restaurants, and amenities just steps away, along with easy access to the city's main avenues. A location tailored to enjoying urban life without compromising on the comfort of a thoughtfully designed home. The apartment is...
