In one of the most emblematic streets of Barcelona, Paseo de Gracia, we find this wonderful furnished house of approximately 140sqm.

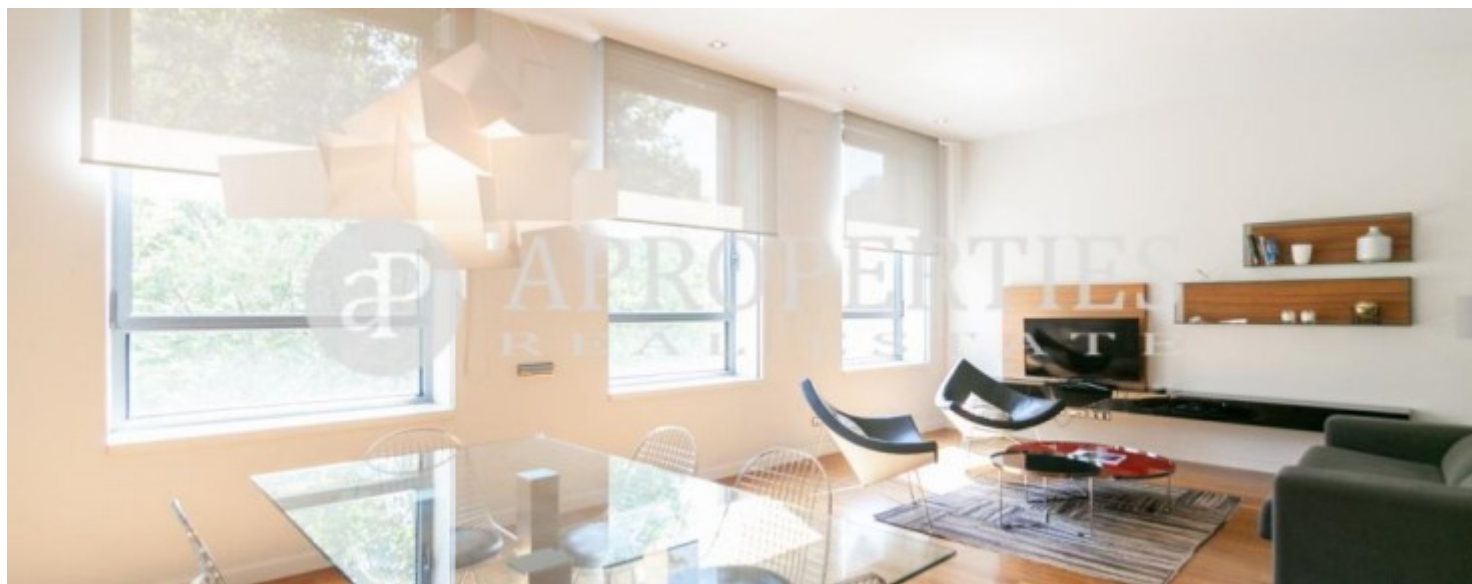

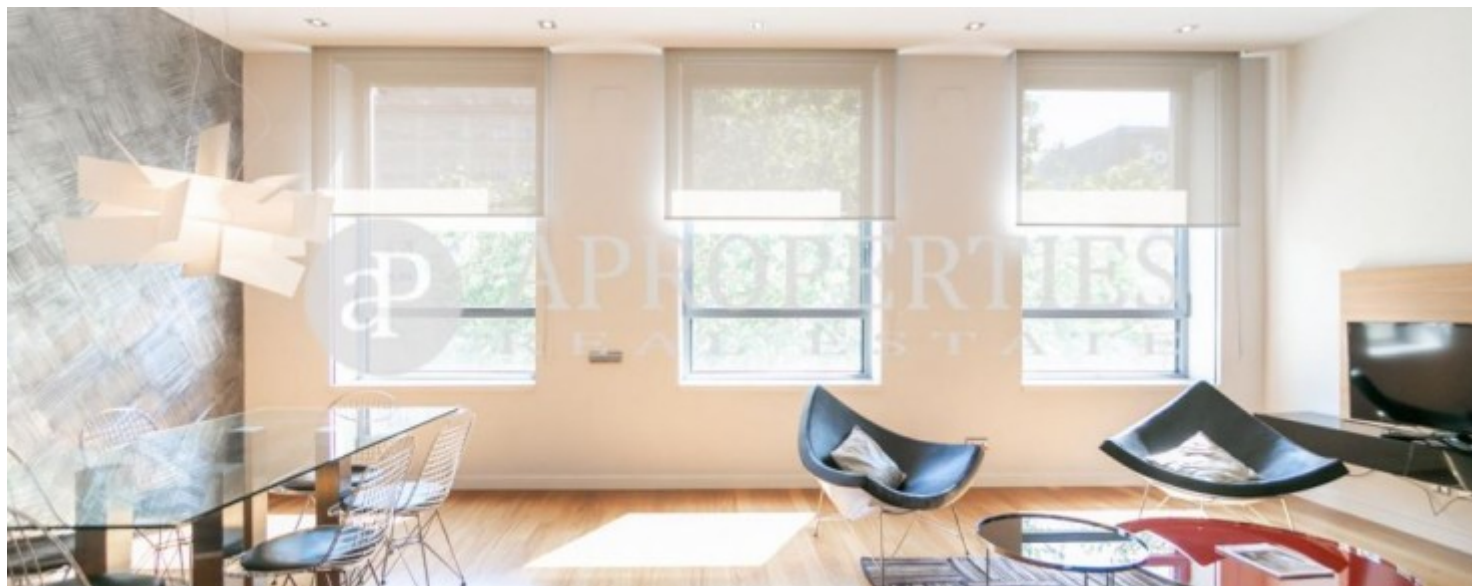

It is a very sunny apartment with a magnificent distribution, differentiating well the day zone of the night area. The day area overlooks Gran Vía with very good views, and consists of a bright living-dining room, an open kitchen with high-end Gaggenau appliances fully equipped and even with small appliances and a courtesy toilet. The night area has two double rooms in suite, one of them with dressing room. The house has everything necessary to enter to live. The farm consists of concierge service. It has an excellent communication with all kinds of public transport and is surrounded by excellent shops.
