Luxury Homes on Rambla de Catalunya

Exclusive homes on Rambla de Catalunya, within a fully restored historic building In one of Barcelona's most iconic locations, Rambla de Catalunya, stands this 1871 building, fully restored and renovated through a project that combines the heritage of historic architecture with the comfort and sophistication of contemporary living. The comprehensive renovation has preserved the essence of the original building, retaining its most distinctive architectural features while incorporating an extension with a new gallery on the side façade, bringing greater spaciousness and natural light to the interiors. The project offers two distinct residential styles, designed to accommodate different preferences while sharing the same commitment to high-quality finishes and meticulous attention to detail. The homes with two double bedrooms and two full bathrooms face the main façade and stand out for their elegant interiors, high ceilings, large windows and balconies. A design that combines Barcelona's architectural heritage with more contemporary elements. The homes with one double bedroom and two full bathrooms offer open-plan spaces with a strong sense of [...]
