In the heart of Eixample Dret in Barcelona, we find this mezzanine with first real height, in a corner classic building.

The property is brand new and completely renovated with high quality materials and finishes. Building with elevator and communal roof terrace. They emphasize its ceilings of Catalan volta with wooden beams, exposed brick walls and coated, park floors and natural stone. It has heating and air conditioning ducts in all rooms. Upon entering we find two double bedrooms, one of them en suite with a large bathroom and French balcony. Followed by a multipurpose room with sliding glass and iron doors, providing a feeling of open space, from where you have access to an outdoor patio that could become a vertical garden. Continuing along the corridor we find the third double bedroom and a second bathroom plus a guest toilet, where the location of the washing machine area is thought. As soon as we get to the day part, we are surprised by the combination of materials and lights, achieving a living room with a very warm atmosphere. Fully equipped open kitchen, with Bosch appliances and wine cellar. Two west-facing balconies allow you to enjoy the natural sun from noon onwards. If you are looking for a house with personality, taste and...
