With an exceptional location in a beautiful modernist corner building on Rosselló Street, very close to Passeig de Sant Joan, we find this special fully renovated property on the fourth floor of the building. The home is accessed through a spacious entrance hall that leads to a large living-dining area with a fully equipped island kitchen, opening onto an 8 m² continuous balcony with lovely city views. The night area consists of a double en-suite bedroom with access to a practical 3.70 m² balcony overlooking the inner courtyard, a second double bedroom, and two single bedrooms, one of which is also en-suite. Additionally, there are 3 full bathrooms and a guest toilet. The apartment features wooden floors, ducted hot and cold air conditioning, restored original carpentry, built-in wardrobes, original stained glass windows, Catalan vaulted ceilings, high ceilings, and many other charming details that make this an excellent purchase option in the area.
