In the heart of the Dreta de l'Eixample, on Diputació street, lies this exceptional property located on a real fourth floor of an elegant stately building, where the charm of modernist architecture blends with a careful renovation and top-quality equipment. The home has been designed to offer spaciousness, functionality, and comfort. It features three bedrooms, all of them en-suite, ensuring privacy and independence. The master bedroom has a pleasant private terrace, while another bedroom enjoys a gallery facing the quiet inner courtyard. In addition, it incorporates an independent office and a fourth guest bathroom. The day area stands out for its generous spaces, with an elegant living room that opens onto two balconies overlooking Diputació street, a perfectly integrated semi-open kitchen, and an independent dining area, ideal both for daily life and for entertaining guests. The property also features a practical laundry room. Among its most unique elements, the hydraulic tile floors and the volta catalana (Catalan vaulted ceilings) stand out, having been carefully restored to preserve the building's original character. It is delivered fully furnished and equipped with high-end furniture and appliances, ready to move into. Located on one of the most emblematic streets of Eixample, the property enjoys a privileged setting, surrounded by restaurants, shops, services, and...
