In Diputació Street, near the Rambla Catalunya and the beautiful Passeig de Gràcia, we find this 90sqm property, recently renovated and furnished with a modern, minimalist, sober and elegant design. It is located in a reformed royal estate, very bright, quiet, and silent. In addition, it is very well connected with public transport. When accessing the day area of the house we find a large kitchen open to the living-room, completely equipped with top quality appliances, cabinets with a lot of storage capacity and a high table that can be moved and divided into two, and a sunny and bright living-room with exit to a typical balcony of the Eixample, with double glazing. A high hall with floor-to-ceiling shelves and a storage room with a loft, separate the sleeping area of the house. In this we find a bathroom with a loft, the water area equipped with a washing machine, and two double bedrooms that share an interior terrace, of which one is a suite. The apartment preserves the high ceilings, the wooden beams and the original brickwork walls that give a distinctive touch and authenticity to the property. The flat has sliding oak doors in several rooms, micro cement floors and air conditioning cold and heat. The whole house plays with the contrasts of the materials, basically wood, metal and brick, being ideal for a couple or family that wants to live in one of the most representative...
