In the heart of Eixample Esquerra, we present this magnificent 114 m² apartment, completely newly renovated, that preserves all the original charm of a regal building: restored hydraulic floors, handcrafted moldings, and high ceilings that provide spaciousness and character. Located on the first real floor of a classic building, the apartment stands out for its natural light and its elegant balance between the classic and contemporary. The property is distributed into a spacious living-dining room with an open kitchen, with direct access to the balconies facing Muntaner Street, ideal for enjoying the city air. A hallway with a large built-in wardrobe connects the day area with the night area, where the cozy living room is located. The apartment currently has two bedrooms: the master, very bright, and a second bedroom/office, both with access to the typical gallery of the Eixample inner courtyard, a peaceful and cozy space. The renovation combines high-quality materials with absolute respect for the original elements, creating a sophisticated, warm, and functional home. Located in one of the most sought-after areas of Barcelona, surrounded by services, shops, restaurants, and perfectly connected to public transport. A unique piece for lovers of Barcelona's classic architecture, ready to move in. Request a visit, and you'll be able to experience its charm and...
