In Diputació Street, near Rambla Catalunya and the beautiful Passeig de Gracia, we find this 90sqm property recently renovated and furnished with a modern, minimalist, sober and elegant design.

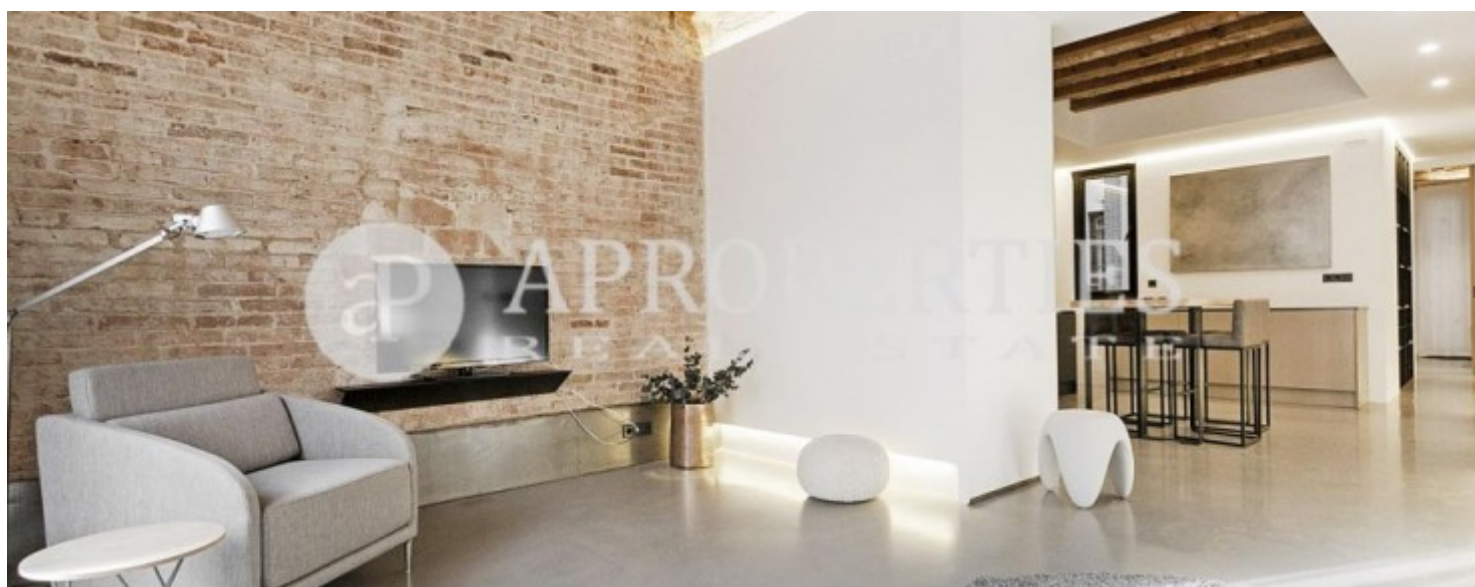

It is located in a regal state and is very bright, quiet, silent and cozy. In addition, it is very well connected with public transport. When coming into the day area of the house we find a large kitchen opened to the living room and equipped with high-quality appliances, cupboards with a lot of storage space and a table that can be moved to the bright living room with access to a typical balcony of Eixample, with double glazing and restored blinds. A high corridor with shelves from the floor to the ceiling and a storage room separates the night area of the house. In this area, we find a toilet, two double bedrooms that share an interior terrace and one of them en suite with light in the head of the bed and the utility room equipped with a washing machine. The floor keeps original catalan high ceilings and wooden beams that give an authenticity essence to the property. It has oak sliding doors in several rooms, micro cement floors and hot and cold air conditioning. The whole house plays with the contrasts of materials, basically with the wood, metal and brick...
