On Diputació Street, close to Rambla de Catalunya and the beautiful Passeig de Gràcia, we find this 90 m² property, recently renovated and furnished with a contemporary, minimalist, sober, and elegant design. Located in a renovated finca regia, it is very bright, quiet, and peaceful, and also very well connected by public transport. Upon entering the day area, we find a spacious open kitchen connected to the living room, fully equipped with top-quality appliances, cabinets with ample storage space, and a high table that can be divided into two and easily moved. The sunny and bright living room opens onto a typical Eixample balcony with double glazing and restored shutters. A tall hallway with floor-to-ceiling shelving and a storage room with a loft separates the night area from the rest of the apartment. This area includes a guest bathroom with a loft, a laundry area with a washing machine, and two double bedrooms that share an interior terrace, one of them being en suite. The apartment retains its high volta catalana ceilings, wooden beams, and original exposed brick walls. It features oak sliding doors in several rooms, microcement floors, and hot/cold air conditioning. The entire home plays with contrasting materials—wood, metal, and brick—making it ideal for a couple or a family wishing to live in one of the most...
