Apartment next to Enrique Granados with spectacular views over the gardens of the Barcelona University.

High ceilings and coffered ceilings, original stained glass windows of the time, high quality wooden parquet, piped music in all rooms, air conditioning ducts with three phases, modernist furniture, are some of the characteristics of this fantastic floor. The flat has a large hall which separates the area day and night. The day area has a nice living room with two balconies to street where we can enjoy magnificent views of the gardens of the university with lots of light. Have a practical kitchen with high-end appliances and a room. The night area has two double bedrooms, a master bedroom with dressing room, a beautiful gallery that communicates with the two rooms that overlook a large and open courtyard by which a lot of light enters. And finally we have two bathrooms one with a bathtub and shower with an exclusive Italian tiling and another with a shower. Is an exclusive flat in an unbeatable location.
