In Loreto street a few steps from the Plaza Francesc Macià, next to the Av.

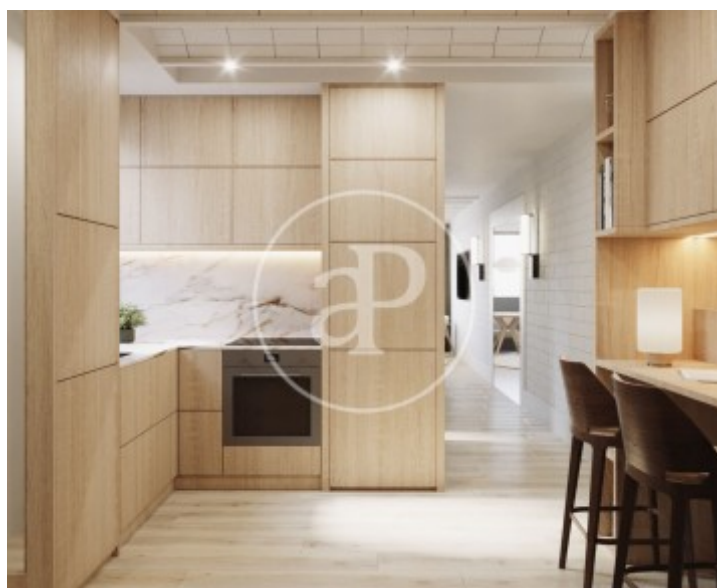

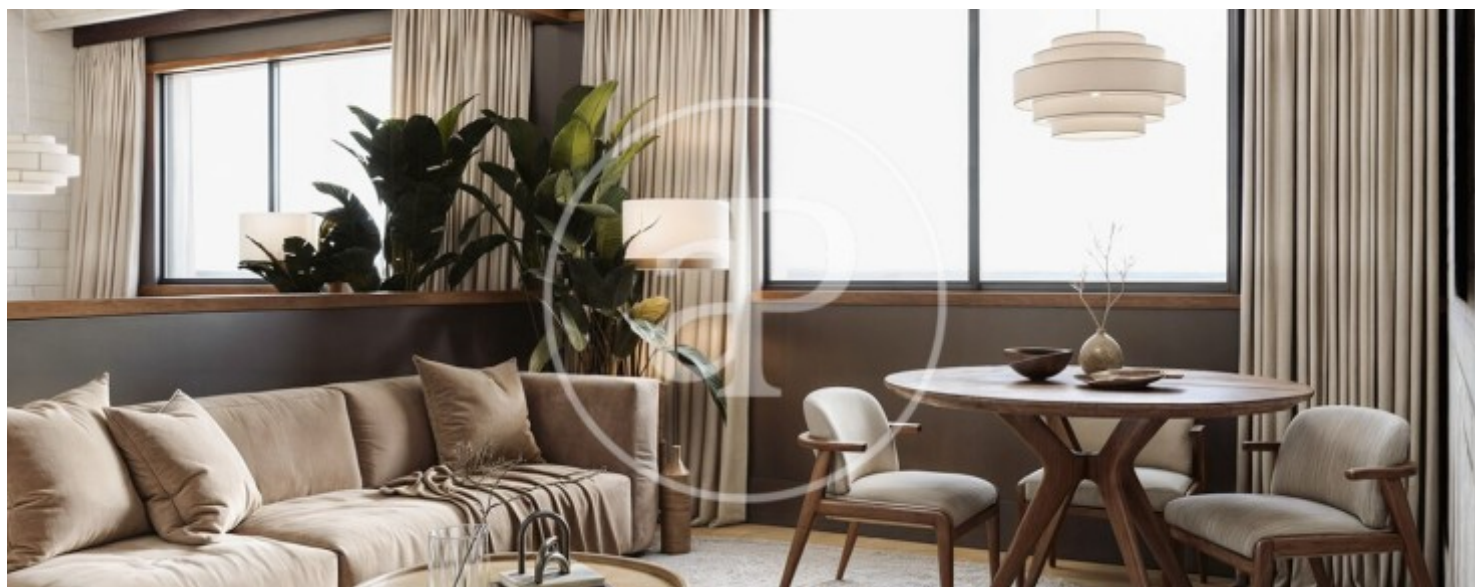

Diagonal we find this beautiful 48sq m apartment on the first floor of a regal building with elevator. The apartment has been completely refurbished using the highest quality finishes and great attention to detail. Its modern design of continuous and refined lines manages to generate functional and cozy spaces, with natural lighting and integrated spaces that give homogeneity and a feeling of spaciousness to the house. The distribution is composed of an open and functional space with the living-dining room area, equipped kitchenette, double bedroom, bathroom and small terrace overlooking the internal courtyard of the building. The floors are covered with natural wood parquet of light oak in first quality three-layer format. The closets of the house are finished in light oak combined with the floor of the house. The bathrooms are finished with microcement walls and floor, with integrated shower trays, built-in faucets, suspended toilets and towel radiators. All installations are new. It has an energy efficient aerothermal system, which produces hot water for domestic water supply, hot/cold air conditioning. The...
