Apartment of 115 m2, located in a privileged area of Born only a few meters from Princesa Street and the Picasso Museum.

The property is located in a cataloged, well-preserved 1890 building. The spacious and open spaces offer great possibilities for renovation, such as, creating a loft space recovering original architectural elements that would provide originality and warmth to the piece. The property consists of a large entrance hall with high ceilings and exposed wooden beams, a living room with three large windows and a balcony to carrer Montcada, a large room that can be divided into two, a bathroom and a storage room. The building has a community use rooftop and will, soon, have an elevator. Its privileged location, close to restaurants and museums, in the heart of Barcelona and a few meters from the sea, allows you to enjoy the city and its cultural offer.
