In one of the typical streets of the Ribera del Born, surrounded by the bustle of restaurants and shops that characterize the neighborhood, we find on the third floor of this farm from 1900, this cozy open space of 38sqm, completely renovated with a unique style and design. It has a full room with built-in wardrobes, a large full bathroom with shower; the kitchen is integrally furnished with paneled appliances and the roof beams have been restored. The apartment is completely renovated and furnished to enter. It has been thought and studied to take advantage of space and enjoy maximum light. Its design allows to live the amplitude of its rooms that characterize it, without losing the possibility of maintaining a certain privacy thanks to a metal wall that creates two environments without cutting off spaces or light. It is perfectly connected to both the yellow Metro line and buses, and is close to the Palau de la Música market and surrounded by local and organic shops. No doubt a success to have a home in Barcelona or an investment to be able to rent right away.
