In the most booming area of the moment, next to the prestigious Soho House and with unique views of the sea and the port of Barcelona that give you the feeling of being at all times near the water but in the privacy of your home, find this unique house of 100sqm renovated with an excellent taste and which is accessed through the beautiful Plaza Mercè and its fascinating church or from Duque de Medinaceli, very comfortable to reach by car and park in the parking or taxi that the stop is next. The property has a special charm, was built in 1875 and has an especially Mediterranean air for its colors and style: the entrance is very high quality and has a wide and bright access from which, through the elevator, we access the apartment in the fourth floor. From the entrance hall we can appreciate the incredible light that comes from the outside and that guides us to the two double bedrooms, one en suite, both complete with fully lined wardrobes, with drawers and shelves. The fantastic day area consists of a spacious and incredibly bright and sunny living room with unique views of the harbor and the sea that fill the whole house: here we find the open kitchen with all the integrated and paneled appliances that give this very complete look and feel of great design. The rooms are exterior and the main room also has an exit to a quiet inner courtyard; from the corridor you access the utility...
