Designed by Ricardo Bofill and his Taller de Arquitectura, just a few metres from Paseo Colón and Via Layetana, we find this impressive 230 m2 duplex penthouse.

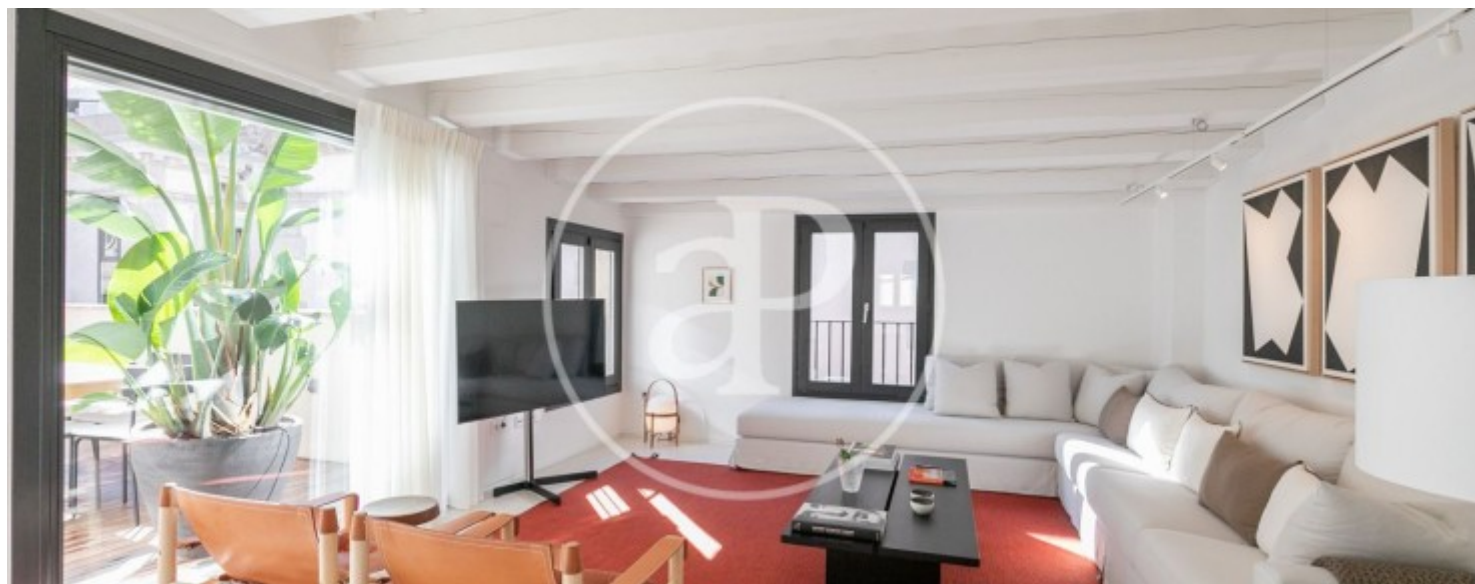

Through the lift, with direct access to the flat, we reach the upper floor of the property, where we find a spacious and bright living-dining room with access to the fantastic private terrace with jacuzzi. On this floor and in the same space as the living room, there is an open plan Bulthaup kitchen, fully equipped with top of the range appliances, and a guest toilet. On the lower floor is the sleeping area, comprising three spacious double bedrooms en-suite with large built-in wardrobes. It has luxury finishes and comes fully furnished, with micro-cement bathrooms, aluminium double glazed windows, ducted air conditioning system, impressive indoor heated swimming pool in the style of Roman thermal baths, gym area with various machines, sauna and spa and treatment area. It has several lifts and concierge service. The building is located in a building dating back to 1598, which has just been completely refurbished. The flat can be rented for short stays, with a minimum of 32 days, as well as for longer periods. The rent includes different services: cleaning once a week with change of sheets and...
