Right in the heart of Barcelona's most cosmopolitan neighborhood, in 22@ and next to the "Parc del Centre de Poblenou," designed by architect Jean Nouvel, we present this unique home in an industrial building that has been converted into a set of loft-style apartments with large open spaces and multiple common areas where you can relax, work out in the gym area, and/or enjoy Barcelona's climate and sunshine in the stunning rooftop swimming pool. This particular apartment has an interior usable area of 105 m² plus a private terrace of 60 m² and includes a storage room. All apartments feature smart home technology through a mobile app, allowing you to control the lights, raise and lower blinds, and more. The air conditioning system operates with aerothermal technology, and it is worth noting that all apartments come with fiber-optic internet included. The apartments are delivered fully furnished, with a fully equipped kitchen. Sizes range from 85 m² to 140 m², with one or two bedrooms (some units include a private terrace). All lofts have an open-plan living-dining area with a kitchen, creating a spacious and airy feel. Large windows bring in natural light, warmth, and comfort to every room, while the layout of each loft has been designed for maximum space efficiency. Details such as exposed ceiling beams and ventilation ducts give these homes the...
