In the heart of Barcelona's most cosmopolitan neighborhood, 22@, right next to the "Parc del Centre de Poblenou" designed by architect Jean Nouvel, we present this unique home located in an industrial building that has been transformed into a complex of loft-style residences with large open spaces and multiple communal areas where you can relax, exercise in the gym, and/or enjoy the Barcelona sun and weather in the stunning rooftop pool. This particular unit has an interior usable area of 86m² and includes a storage room. All units are equipped with smart home technology through a mobile app that allows you to control lighting, blinds, and more. The climate control system operates via aerothermal energy, and all apartments come with included high-speed fiber optic internet. The a partments are delivered fully furnished with an equipped kitchen. Sizes range from 85m² to 140m² and include one or two bedrooms (some units feature a private terrace). Each loft includes a living-dining room with an open kitchen, offering a great sense of space. Large windows provide natural light, warmth, and comfort throughout the home. The layout of each loft has been designed to make the most of every space. Details such as exposed ceiling beams or visible ventilation ducts contribute to the distinctive industrial aesthetic typical of this kind of home. The building also off...
