This beautiful apartment of 70 m² is located in the neighborhood of Poble Sec, in a very quiet street, near the Parc de Montjuïc and 5 minutes from the Parallel metro stop.

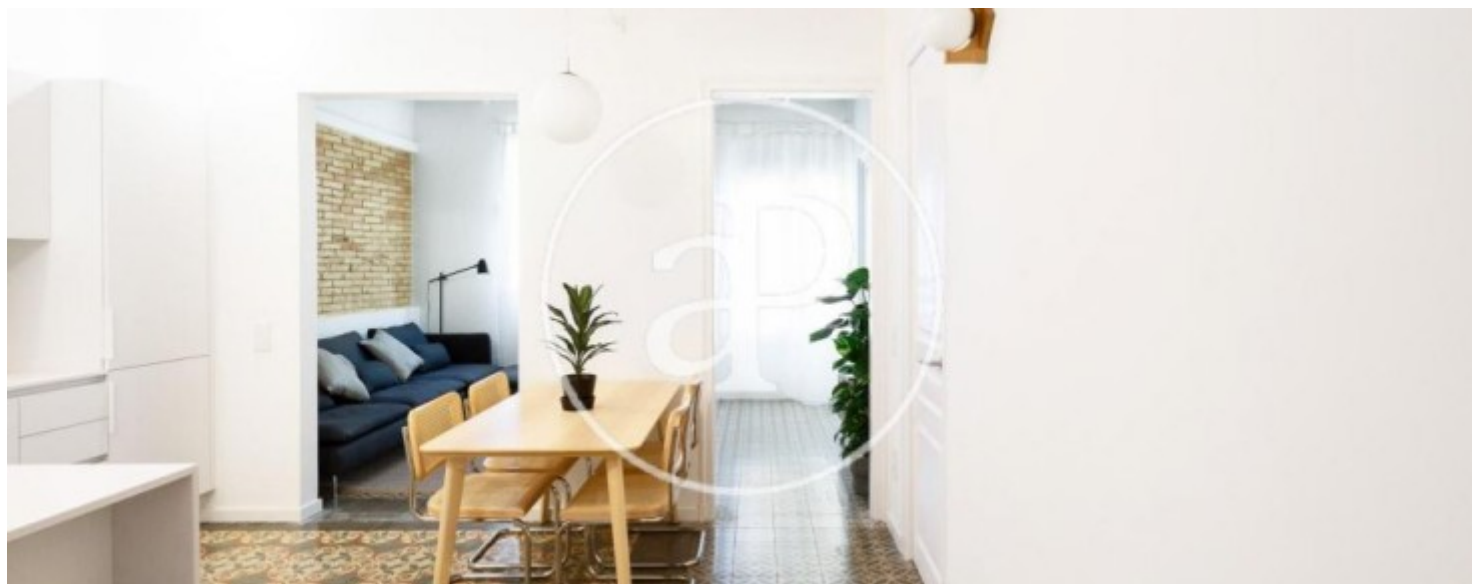

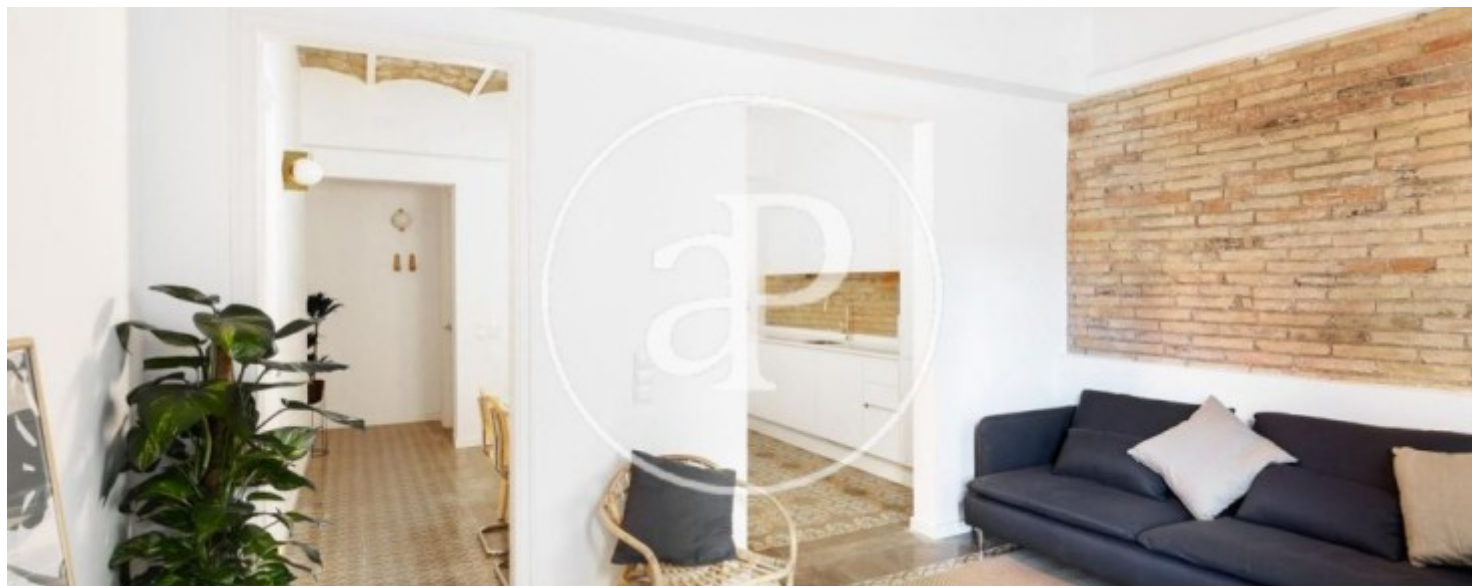

It is a Principal (first real) located in a typical royal estate architecture of Barcelona of the early twentieth century, very well maintained and restored. The floor opens to the façade of Tapioles Street with a continuous balcony that goes from side to side and gives a lot of light to the living room and one of the rooms. The integral reform has been made with a modern style but at the same time trying to preserve and maximize all the unique architectural features of its time.

It has very high ceilings, preserved in their original format with metal beams and classic Catalan ceramic vaults. The original hydraulic mosaics, with different geometric patterns and colors in each space, have been preserved and restored almost in their entirety. They have also been able to maintain almost all the woodwork, incorporating double glass with camera. In the area of the kitchen and the bathroom two new aluminum carpentries have been lacquered in matt white. The space is distributed in a very functional and compact way, without corridors or corridors. From the entrance door,...
