Hidden in the charming neighborhood of Putxet, this unique property is located, completely renovated and designed by the prestigious Cirera Studio.

The renovation has followed a carefully considered aesthetic approach that pays tribute to the Mediterranean essence, in dialogue with the surroundings and the history of the house, built in 1947. The original layout across different levels has been preserved, allowing full use of both indoor and outdoor spaces. The design stands out for its balance between interior and exterior, achieved through a palette of warm and natural colors, with terracotta and sand tones taking center stage. The renovation is conceived as an integral project that aims to create a home that breathes Mediterranean essence in every corner, respecting its original character and enhancing the connection between spaces through a carefully selected combination of materials, colors, and vegetation. The property offers three bedrooms, one of them en suite, two full bathrooms, and a study with the possibility of being converted into a fourth bedroom. In addition, there is the option to purchase a parking space in a nearby building.
