This brand new studio/loft is located in the Putxet i Farró neighborhood, a quiet and well-connected area of Barcelona.

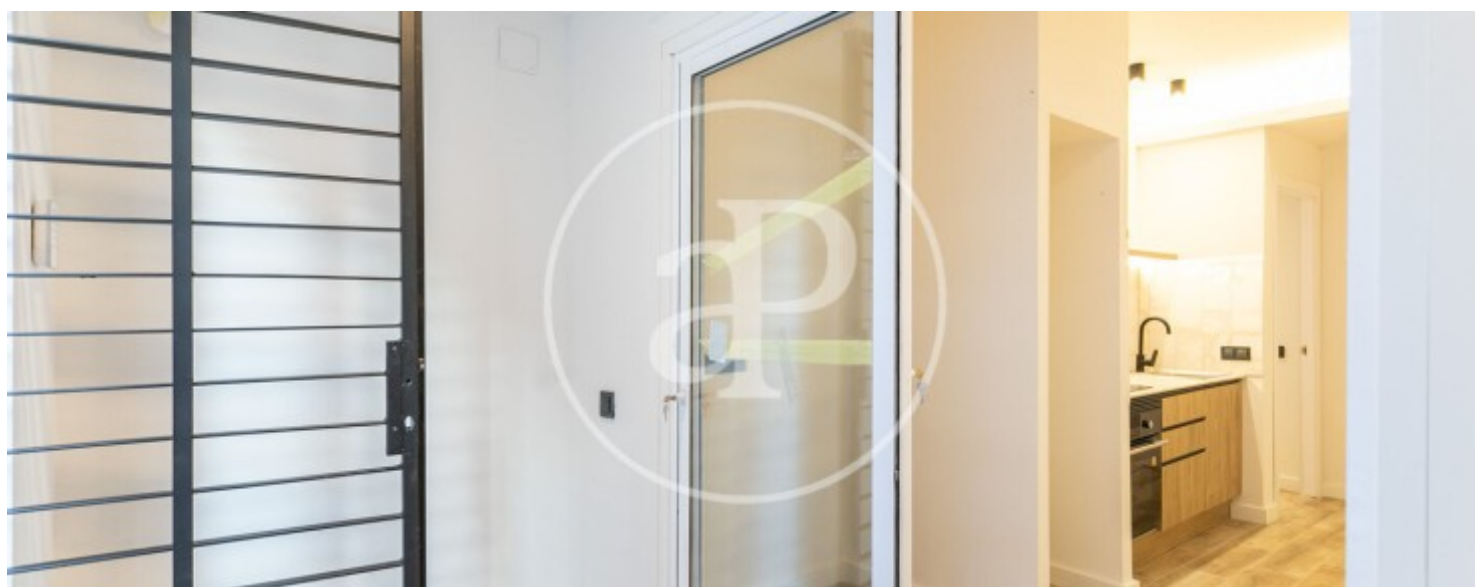

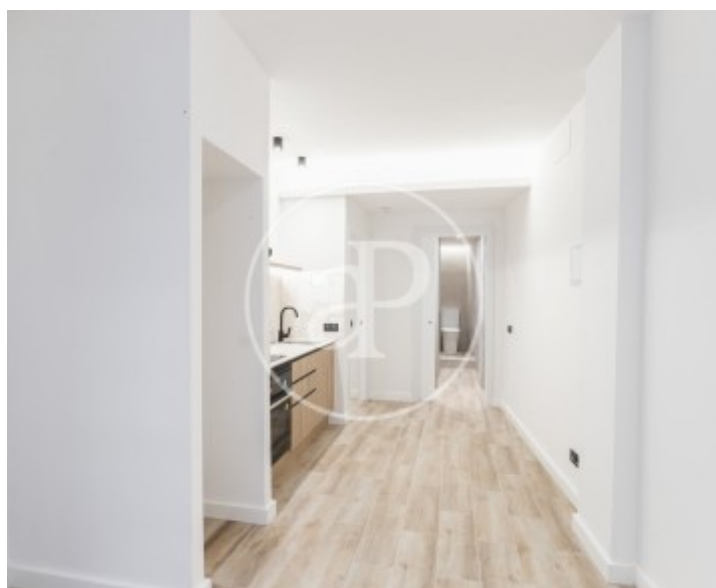

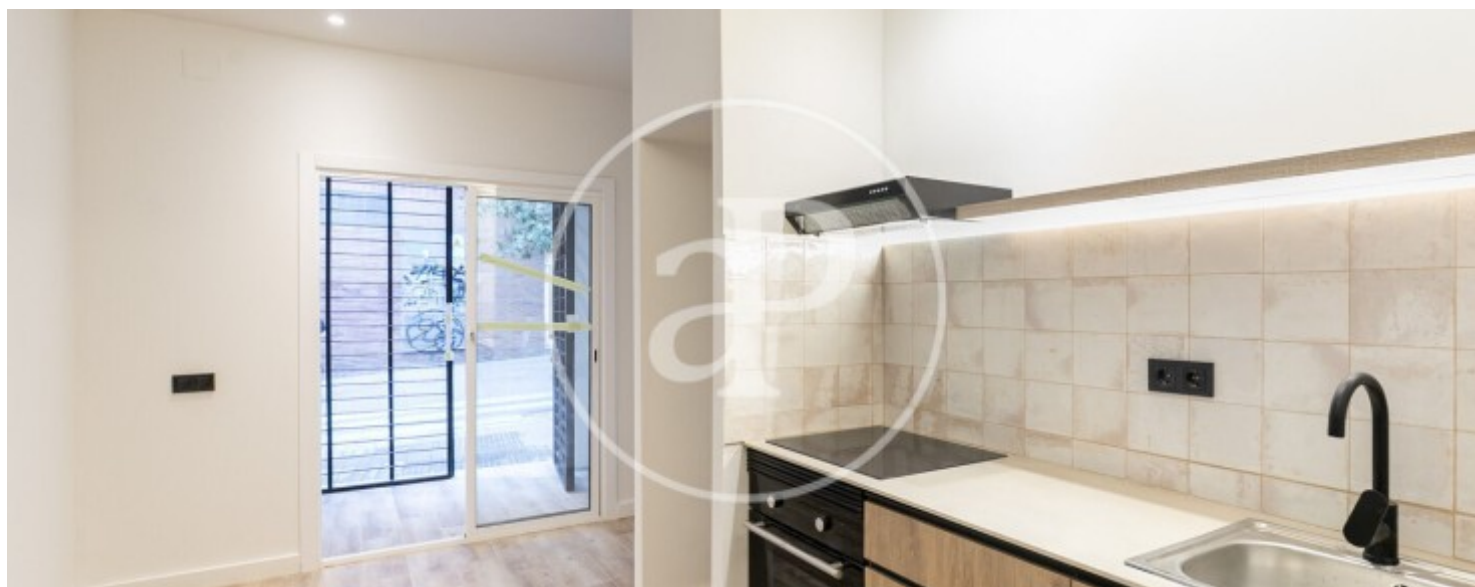

With an area of 40 m² built, it is distributed in a single open space that offers a versatile and modern space. It has a bathroom with shower and an office kitchen, as well as pre-installation of air conditioning. Its location is ideal, with close access to important communication routes such as Balmes street and Ronda General Mitre, making it easy to move around both by car and public transport. The FGC Padua stop is just a few minutes away, which allows a quick connection to the center of Barcelona and nearby towns such as Sant Cugat del Vallès. The environment offers a wide range of services, stores, restaurants and green areas, making this studio a comfortable space for those seeking tranquility without sacrificing proximity to the dynamism of the city. Perfect for those who value excellent mobility and a privileged location.
