In a strategic enclave of the cosmopolitan and attractive neighborhood of Raval, in Barcelona, very close to Ronda Sant Pau and Sant Antoni market, we find this building that was built in 1846, fully rehabilitated. This loft of 85sqm useful, located on the fourth floor WITHOUT elevator, has high ceilings with recovered wooden beam and exit to two balconies with double orientation (southeast and southwest), upon entering we find a first space without reform where the kitchen - hall, and then a large loft type space completely renovated (2005), which with a separation of the living - dining room with plasterboard at half ceiling, would be a double bedroom with closet, a bathroom with bathtub and a toilet. Terrace for communal use on the roof of the building.
