Iconic house designed by the renowned Carlos Pujol, with 500 m² carefully distributed over 6 floors and south-facing, ensuring abundant natural light and panoramic views over Barcelona. The house features 7 independent bedrooms, each with its own terrace and private bathroom, providing residents with an intimate and comfortable atmosphere. The living-dining room, located in the central part of the house, includes a fully equipped open kitchen with state-of-the-art appliances and gives access to a beautiful terrace where you can enjoy pleasant meals with family and friends outdoors. Common areas include an attractive pool surrounded by plants, inviting relaxation. The private sauna completes the wellness offering of this home, which also includes an elevator and spacious storage areas for added convenience, as well as parking for 3 vehicles. The design and décor of this house are unique, evoking the Mediterranean essence in a warm yet laid-back setting. The materials have been carefully selected and include reclaimed wood, decorative ropes, and fair trade lamps, minimizing the use of plastics. The property has been certified with an A energy rating, ensuring highly efficient and eco-friendly consumption. Thanks to...
