La Barceloneta still retains its special charm.

Its narrow streets and facades obscured by sea salt have turned this area into one of the most prized of Barcelona, a place with a quiet, seaworthy and family atmosphere that remains alien to the big city. One of the main attractions of the neighborhood are its beaches, the largest, best-known and busiest in the city. Just a step away from Borne and Barceloneta beach, we find in this pleasant pedestrian passageway, on a property in perfect conditions, a luxurious 43sqm Pied-à-terre completely renovated industrial design with Mediterranean details with two balconies. The apartment has been fully renovated maintaining and highlighting the original elements of the late 1800s such as the height of the roofs, traditional Catalan ceilings, and brick walls seen all illuminated by indirect LED lights that create a warm and welcoming. The flat layout in a living-dining room with open kitchen fully equipped, a double room with large fitted wardrobes and a bathroom with shower and utility room. This apartment is distinguished by being a unique jewel in one of the most charismatic neighborhoods of the city, a sure hit.
