This attractive 26 m² penthouse studio has been completely renovated to offer a modern, functional, and carefully optimized living space.

The renovation project prioritizes high-quality materials and the intelligent use of every square meter, resulting in a bright, elegant home that is fully ready to move into. Thanks to its layout and features, it is equally appealing as a private residence or as an investment with strong rental potential. The property is organized around a well-designed entrance that naturally leads to the rest of the living areas. In this section of the home, there is access to a separate bathroom with a contemporary design, equipped with a shower tray and understated finishes that create a clean and visually balanced atmosphere. The main living area forms the heart of the apartment. A large window allows abundant natural light to flood the space, creating an open and welcoming environment. The room has been designed with versatility in mind: thanks to a wall bed system integrated with the sofa, the space can easily adapt to different uses, functioning as a living and dining area during the day and transforming into a comfortable bedroom at night without compromising the overall aesthetic. The kitchen, electric and open-plan in...
