Located on Travessera de les Corts, in a well-established and constantly appreciating area, surrounded by services, shops and excellent transport connections, this magnificent corner property stands out for being completely exterior and exceptionally bright. The apartment has been fully renovated and is brand new, using high-quality materials and finishes, with great attention to detail to offer a contemporary, elegant and functional design. It has a built area of 102 m², with spacious and very well-utilized spaces. The property is laid out with a large and bright living-dining room with direct access to a generous continuous balcony-terrace of approximately 9 meters. The kitchen is harmoniously integrated into the day area and also features a practical independent utility area. The night area offers three bedrooms: a master suite with private bathroom, a double bedroom, and a third single bedroom. The property is completed with a second full bathroom. To ensure maximum comfort, the apartment is equipped with ducted hot and cold air conditioning, double-glazed windows, and electric blinds. A bright, modern property ready to move into, located in an area with great future potential. An ideal opportunity both as a main residence and as an investment.
