In the iconic Plaça de la Concòrdia, one of the most charming spots in Les Corts, sits this exceptional 258 sq m single-family home, fully renovated and distributed over three floors.

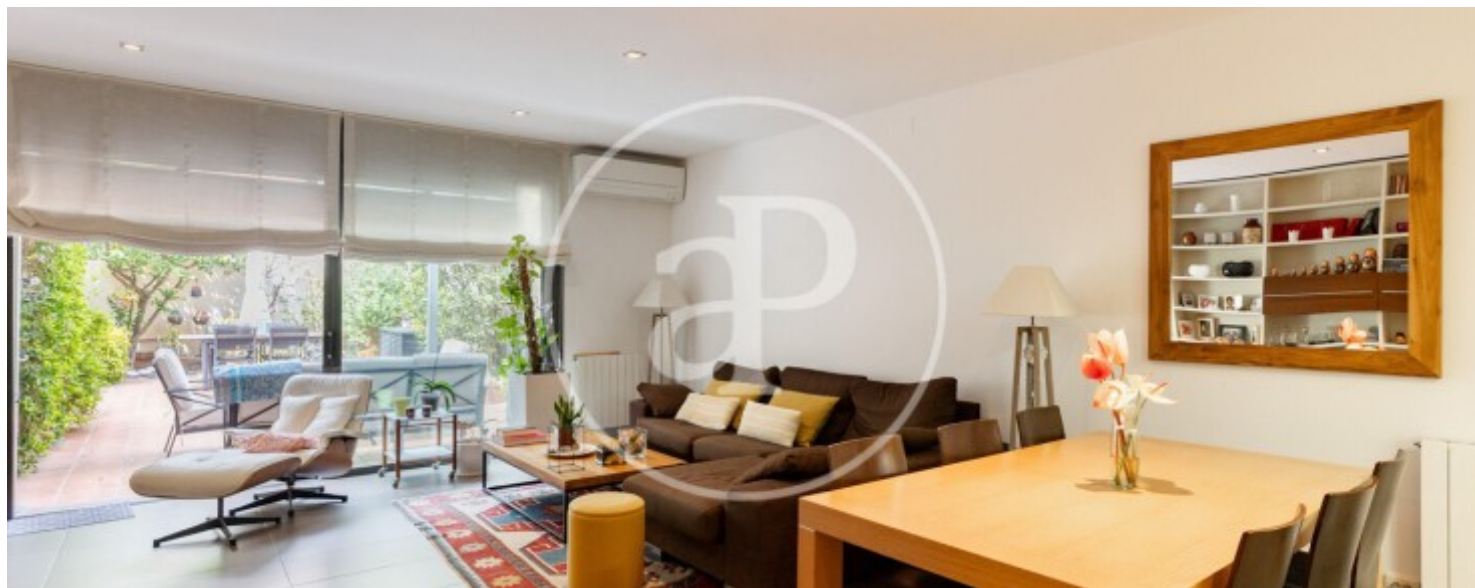

The residence seamlessly combines the character of early 20th-century architecture with the comfort and high standards of a full interior renovation. It stands out for its generous rooms, natural light, and magnificent outdoor areas—a rare combination in central Barcelona. The spacious living-dining room offers direct access to a private courtyard/patio of approximately 60 sq m, perfect for al fresco dining or relaxing in total privacy. The upper floor features an additional large terrace. The private area offers four bedrooms, including an elegant master suite with a walk-in closet and private bathroom, plus three full bathrooms in total. The separate kitchen is broad and highly functional, complete with a large pantry. The property features a south-facing orientation, built-in wardrobes, air conditioning, heating, and a storage room, all presented in excellent condition. Its location delivers a quiet, family-friendly residential setting surrounded by local boutiques, restaurants, gardens, and all essential services, with top transit links to...
