Located in a quiet area of the neighborhood of Tres Torres we find this charming home that stands out for its spectacular terrace of 300m², a perfect space to enjoy both as a couple and as a family.

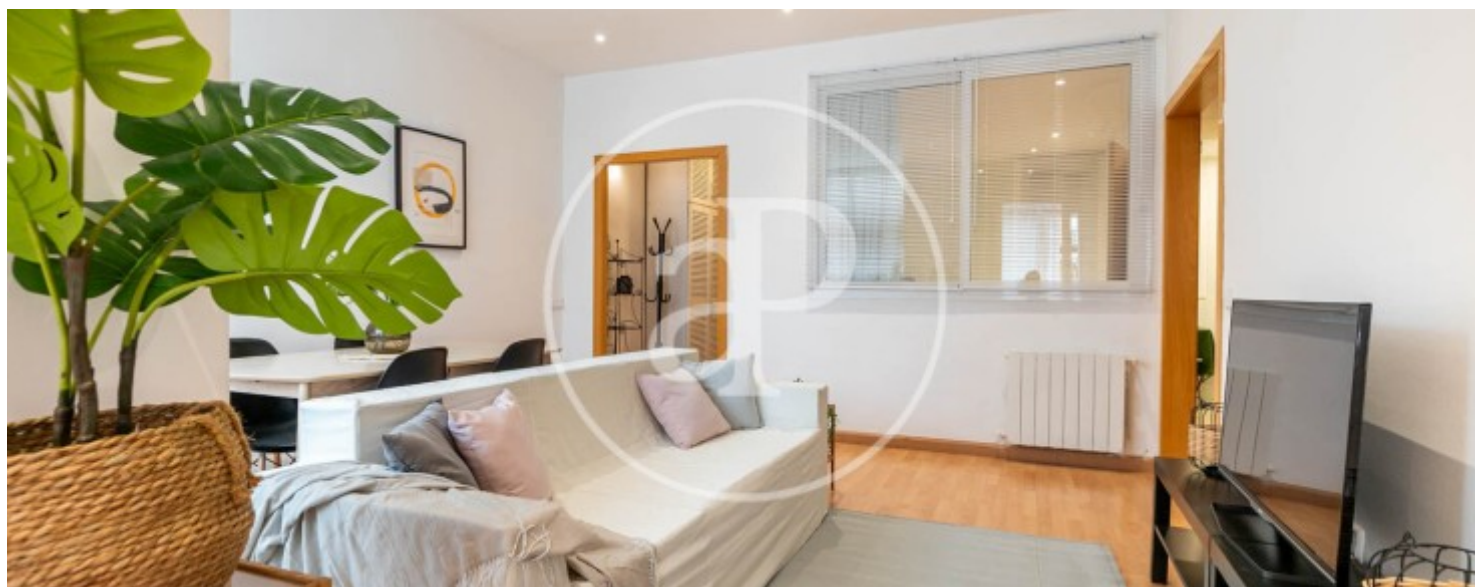

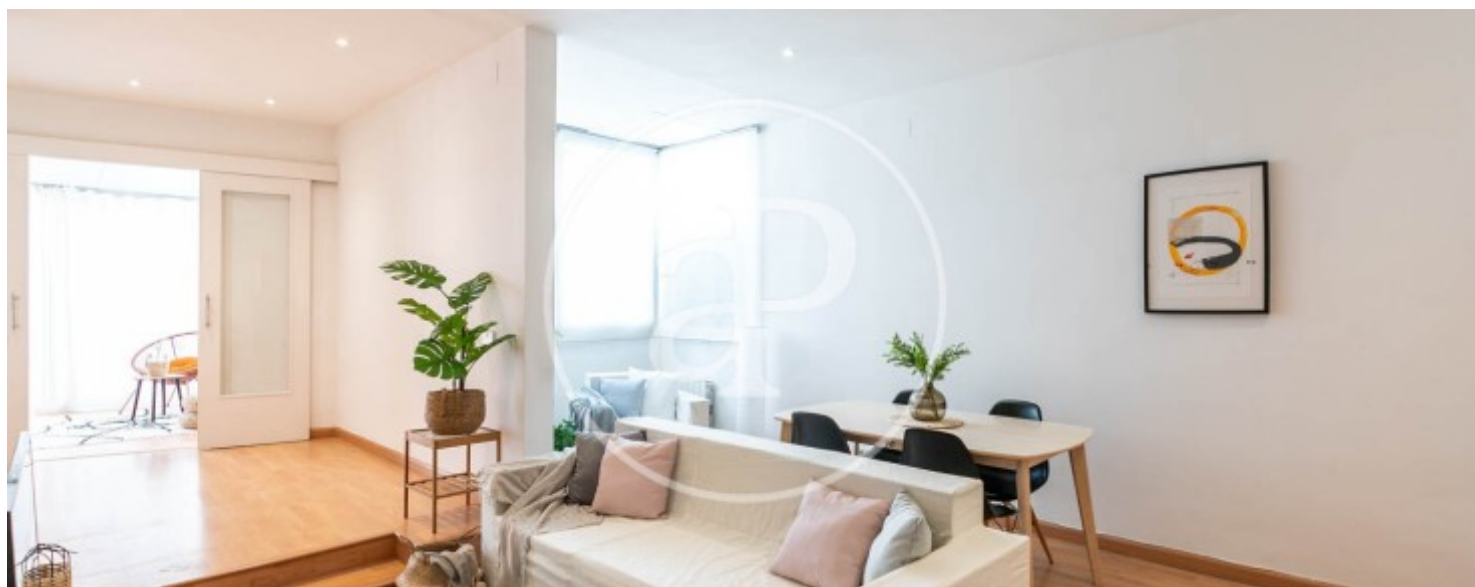

The property, south facing, has 85m² according to the land registry and is part of a nice building with elevator. The day area consists of a double-height living room, renovated and very bright, separated by a sliding door from a room that can be converted into a bedroom or study and with access to the terrace. The independent kitchen has the latest appliances, laundry room and the possibility of adding a table in the center or on the side. The sleeping area consists of 3 bedrooms, one of them double with dressing room or office and another independent, and 2 renovated bathrooms with shower. The property has video surveillance camera, very well maintained parquet, individual heating and air conditioning. Built in 1970, this property is located in Tres Torres, one of the most sought after exclusive neighborhoods of Barcelona and is surrounded by all kinds of stores, clinics, schools and very well connected with public transport. Do not wait any longer and make this property your new home!
