Penthouses with Terrace in New Developments

New building located in Calle Murcia, close to Navas metro station and suburban trains. Two penthouses with private roof terrace of 30m² are available. These are very special units due to the double height of the ceilings, offering opportunities for unique decoration. They are distributed in a large living-dining room with access to a 6m² balcony and have 2 double bedrooms and a bathroom. Through the communal staircase they access their respective private terraces of 30m² each. The building makes use of the latest technologies in terms of energy efficiency, low CO₂ emissions, use of recycled and ecological materials, aerothermal energy among others.
